Dear Jeff,

At this point I just wanted to let you know that the Lee campus will be submitting a proposal for a collegiate high school, probably 9 - 12, probably to open in fall of 2010. The recommendation will go to the campus Board of Trustees in late April. We know that the proposal is due no later than July 31, 2009, I have all of the charter application forms. At there any pitfalls I should be aware of, any hurdles that previous applicants have had to jump. As we get closer to submission of the proposal, if we have questions, are you the one to consult? Thanks for any advice you can give in advance.
